Dear Misters Cantor and Bordy,

The Bankruptcy Judges of the Southern District of Indiana would like to extend our thanks to Bill Harbison of your firm, and to all the staff at SEILLER WATERMANN LLC who have assisted him in his pro bono service to this Court.

When Bill was recruited to assist in the cleanup of some bankruptcy matters after debtors' counsel was suspended from the practice, the Court had no idea the magnitude of the problems Bill would fix. In addition to the filed cases known to the Court, the suspended attorney had accepted fees, including filing fees, from numerous clients whose cases had not been filed.

Bill stepped into the fray and, with help from others at your firm, brought order to the chaos. At last count, Bill had touched or handled more than 60 cases, and in the vast majority of those your firm has received no compensation. In many, Bill obtained the waiver of filing fees paid to previous counsel but never remitted or returned.

We appreciate your firm's indulgence in allowing Bill and others to devote so much time and energy to assisting those harmed by a member of the legal community. His work has no doubt restored the faith of those clients in our legal system.

We advised the American Bankruptcy Institute about the fine work done by Bill. We are so happy that the ABI has invited Bill to attend, as its guest, the "Hon. Eugene R. Wedoff Seventh Circuit Consumer Bankruptcy Conference" in Chicago on November 10. The ABI intends to recognize Bill and his service at the conference.

Thank you again.

Very truly yours,

Hon. Robyn L. Moberly
Chief Bankruptcy Judge

Hon. James M. Carr
Bankruptcy Judge
